

Contact: Matthew Heil 602-534-0108 June 15, 2018
 Estrella Payton 602-534-5084

Cool off at the Gallery @ City Hall with the newest exhibition

“From Tap to Source: The Art of Water”

“From Tap to Source: The Art of Water” is now on view at The Gallery @ City Hall through April 15, 2019. This exhibition highlights the ways in which artists have reflected on water and the ancient and modern canal systems that have delivered it in the Southwest. These 26 works, all from the City of Phoenix’s Municipal Art Collection cover a wide range of expressions, media, and themes – all related to the beauty, significance and at times, irony of abundant water in the desert.

Located on the ground floor of City Hall, The Gallery @ City Hall is open weekdays from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. The artwork will be on display through April 15, 2019.

The Gallery @ City Hall is supported and operated by the Friends of Phoenix Public Art. The Friends of Phoenix Public Art are currently looking for new Gallery volunteers. Selected volunteers will participate in a ninety-minute training program to learn about the gallery exhibits and works in the Phoenix Municipal Art Collection. For more information, email: poacvolunteer@gmail.com

About Friends of Phoenix Public Art

The mission of Friends of Phoenix Public Art, a non-profit organization, is to support the maintenance and restoration of the Municipal Art Collection of the City of Phoenix, through fundraising, education, and advocacy. “Friends” manages the Gallery @ City Hall and presents educational programming about citywide public art projects. For more information: www.friendsofphoenixpublicart.org

About Phoenix Office of Arts and Culture

The Phoenix Office of Arts and Culture, established by the Phoenix City Council in 1985, works to foster a sense of cultural identity, celebrate diversity and ensure an outstanding quality of community life. The Public Art Program was established in 1986 to improve the design of the city’s buildings, spaces and infrastructure. The Office is advised by the Phoenix Arts and Culture Commission. For more information on the Office of Arts and Culture, visit phoenix.gov/arts or call 602-262-4637. Follow the Office on Facebook: www.facebook.com/phxofficeofartsandculture Instagram @phxarts_culture and Twitter @phxarts_culture.

- 30 -

Find out all the ways to get city news